

4 March 1963

On the occasion of your recent visit to this country, I mentioned the possibility of visiting in March.

Unfortunately I have had to undergo an operation on my thyroid gland and have just now left the hospital. This has necessitated my cancelling the plans I had made for a trip to the Far East, certainly for the next several months when I will be recuperating and otherwise involved here in Washington.

I am sorry that I have had to change my plans but I did want you to know what had happened. I shall look forward to visiting your country sometime later on, but just when I cannot now foresee.

With warm regards,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. Secretary:

In our brief visit this morning I mentioned the possibility of my visiting [redacted] perhaps next month. It would help me greatly if you will keep this very secret-- it is still only a possibility and it may well be necessary for me to come in quietly and leave quietly without public notice.

I will of course, keep you informed of my plans.

Faithfully yours,

/s/ Marshall S. Carter
